WORKSHOPS

Most workshops will be offered in a.m. and p.m. sessions, unless otherwise stated.

Spirituality: Following the Spirit's Way to Congregational Health
 To what extent is your congregation grounded in following its calling? To what extent does your congregation base its decisions on prayer and discernment? To what extent are your leaders trained in and encouraged to follow God's guidance? Dr. Standish will lead us in exploring how to open congregations to grow spiritually so that seeking God's will becomes the foundation of doing God's will and experiencing God's grace and blessing.
N. Graham Standish, Pastor of Calvin Presbyterian Church, Zelienople, PA; Author of Becoming a Blessed Church: Forming a Church of Spiritual Purpose, Presence, and Power

Stewardship: Stewardship and the Generations
Jim Browne, Pastor at Hilliard Presbyterian Church, Hilliard, OH, and Doug Browne, Elder and Chair of the Stewardship Committee, Hilliard Presbyterian Church, Hilliard, OH

Worship: Worship Practices and the Transformation of the Church
 (This workshop is a Morning Workshop ONLY)
 This workshop will discuss the following: "Why we do what we do and why we don't do what we should do."

Youth, Young Adults and Emergent Worship: Emerging Youth, Emerging Worship
 While we give thanks that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow, it cannot be that our worship as the body of Christ remains the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. Participants in this workshop will explore the emerging needs of the millennial generation, today's young people, alongside the growing trend of emerging/emergent worship. We will explore what the emergent church means, how it is affecting what we do with young people, young adults, and our expressions of worship in our congregations.
Rodger Nishioka, Benton Family Associate Professor of Christian Education, Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, GA

WORKSHOPS

Most workshops will be offered in a.m. and p.m. sessions, unless otherwise stated.

Bible: Contextual Bible Study: Reading with (Extra) Ordinary Readers

(This workshop is an Afternoon Workshop ONLY)

Is your idea of Bible study reading a study guide together as a group and discussing it? Contextual Bible study moves away from written guides to a close engagement of the biblical text that moves you to consider the implications of the text for your lives in your contexts and to act upon them! Come and learn how.

Christian Education: The Future of Educational Ministry: Challenges and Possibilities

Cultural and social trends are having a profound impact on the church's educational ministry. Declining participation in church, the "spiritual but not religious" phenomenon, changing patterns of family life, an aging population, and more are forcing us to rethink the ways in which we will pass on the faith to future generations. This workshop will explore the challenges and consider promising practices that offer hope for the future.

Diane Hymans, Professor of Christian Education, Director of Center for Educational Ministry in the Parish, and Associate Academic Dean – Ministry Division, Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, OH

Evangelism: A Christian Lifestyle (The Connections Between Grace, Discipleship, and Evangelism)

Ray Jones, PCUSA Coordinator of Evangelism, Louisville, KY; Founding Pastor of Macland Presbyterian Church, Powder Springs, GA

Mission: Presbyterian World Mission

Mission work in the area of evangelism priority areas around the world. These include: Vietnam, Central Asia, Sudan, and the Roma of Central and Eastern Europe. Mike will also discuss the broader work of his office around the world and provide opportunities for individuals and churches to become more involved.

Mike Parker, Coordinator for International Evangelism for Presbyterian World Mission, Mission Coworker in Sudan and Rwanda for ten years, author of The Kingdom of Character: The Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, 1886-1926, Louisville, KY
